Dear Mr. Lewinson:

Thank you very much for your letter of 3 July in regard to your hobby of collecting business cards.

Since I do not have a business card, I hope that my signature on this letter will serve your purpose of adding my name to your collection. I thought perhaps that you may be able to use the self-addressed stamped envelope that you sent me so I am returning it to you.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely

Dear Mr. Dulles:

My name is Bill Lewinson. As a hobby,
I collect business cards from various business firms and personalities around the country.

I would be very honored to have your card among the many others in my collection. I would appreciate it very much if you would kindly slip it in the enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope and drop it in a mailbox at any convenient time.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Bill Lewinson
